

Educational and Entertaining Guided Walks of Historic Gloucester

Gloucester has a rich history ranging for the time when it was a Roman Colonia through its Saxon transformation to Medieval Royal parliaments and Civil War Siege followed by industrial transformation to an historic inland port. Bring Gloucester's unique and varied history alive for your students with Gloucester Civic Trust's guided walks.

Experienced guides offer a range of guided walks including:

- Roman Gloucester – including the Eastgate Chamber
 - Saxon Gloucester
 - Medieval Gloucester
- The English Civil War (Siege of Gloucester)
 - Gloucester's Victorian Docks
 - Historic Gloucester characters
 - Beatrix Potter

All school groups must be accompanied by teachers / appropriate adults.

Walks last approximately 1 ½ hours.

Walks are for groups of up to 15 per guide – larger groups will be accommodated by additional guides.

Primary school groups are charged at £2 per pupil

Secondary school groups are charged at £3 per pupil
